

2015 | Emek

Emek's work, psychedelic '60s imagery collides with '90s post-industrial iconography. To this collision of the organic vs. the mechanical worlds, he adds humor, social commentary, and fantasy. Emek's first poster commission was done immediately after the L.A. riots/uprising of 1992 for a unity rally and concert held on Martin Luther King Day. His unique visual style has graced music posters on a diverse musical spectrum, from Blues legend B.B. King to the Beastie Boys. Emek's work has been shown in galleries across the United States, in Berlin, London and Tokyo. In December 2007, Billboard named the top 25 rock posters of all time. EMEK garnered 3 spots on the list, the most of any single artist.
